

6

SCHOOL RESOURCES ON DYING, DEATH, GRIEF & LOSS

The Help Us Understand Grief (HUUG) Program from Heart House Hospice provides short-term supports and counselling to children, youth, and families living with serious illness, dying, death, and grief.

Click here.

KidsGrief.ca, run by the Canadian Virtual Hospice, offers comprehensive step-by-step modules to help support children, youth and their families with the different stages of loss and grief.

Click here.

20 Things Grieving Students Would Like Teachers to Know

A one-page infographic from Lighthouse that illustrates 20 key thoughts that grieving students often have.

Click here.

Death of a Family Member during a Global Pandemic: Supporting Children and Finding Ways to Mourn and Grieve Together

A two-page resource from Lighthouse that describes ways to mourn and grieve with children despite pandemic restrictions.

Click here.

Supporting a Grieving Child or Teen at School

A two-page resource from Lighthouse that describes the signs of a grieving student and ways that teachers and school staff can help.

Click here.

Child and Youth Grief Network

An organization that connects children, youth, parents and the community at large with resources, toolkits and other organizations to better support them through the stages of dying, death, loss and grief.

Click here.

Compassionate Ottawa

Compassionate Ottawa

compassionateottawa.ca

info@compassionateottawa.ca